Minutes

I. 6:00 Welcome
   The following individuals were present: Lori Stack, Ella Hart, Bridget Allison, Amy Hill, Tim Hill, and Billie Day

II. 6:15 Charter Application Training- Paige Jovanovic, Manager of Charter Schools
   - The Current APS Charter Landscape includes 9 current charters and 3 new ones approved last year. We have only one applicant this year.
   - They tend to be based mostly in the Northeast quadrant of the district
   - See video in PowerPoint for responsibilities of the authorizers
   - Do charters experience a decline in enrollment like our neighborhood schools? Yes. There is a trend of decline as students move to other district and people that move into Aurora are young and without children.
   - 2019 Cycle Overview. Board makes a decision along with the Superintendent’s assessment including an impact statement.
   - Colorado statute, APS policy, and best practice document are available and will be shared with DAAC members.
   - Applicants are required to complete two interview processes.
   - We offer meetings with different APS departments to understand the uniqueness of our district.
   - Feb. 6 Letter of Intent is due
   - March 8 Application deadline
   - April 15 Application presentation to DAAC
   - May 1 Applicant presentation and Interview
   - June 4 Board presentation
